

To whom it may concern

Dr. Thomas Gottwald
Official in charge

+43 1 521 52
Museumstraße 7, 1070 Vienna

thomas.gottwald@bmj.gv.at

SimpliVi – Conference

The Austrian Federal Ministry of Justice cordially invites you on behalf of the SimpliVi project to the Conference "Simplifying Judicial Cross-Border Videoconferencing". The conference takes place on

17th and 18th of September 2025

at the Court of Appeal Wrocław, Poland.

The SimpliVi project aims at "Simplifying Cross-Border Judicial Videoconferencing in Europe" by providing hands-on recommendations and best-practises. It further proposes an e-CODEX implementation for the setup of such a videoconference. The Austrian Federal Ministry of Justice together with the Austrian Federal Computing Center coordinate the project together with its partners Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Court of Appeal Wrocław, Ministry of Justice of North Rhine-Westphalia, Spanish Ministry of the Presidency, Justice and Relations with the Courts and the Portuguese Judicial High Council.

The conference will introduce for the first time the long-awaited "SimpliVi Recommendations and Best-Practises" as well as the proposed e-CODEX Implementation. It will further cover experience reports, interviews and discussions about national and international legal, technical and organisational aspects of judicial videoconferencing. Please find the conference agenda, organisational information and the registration link on the SimpliVi Website:

<https://simplivi.eu>

For a physical participation, there is only limited availability. We recommend registering early for the conference!

Finally, we encourage you to forward this information to interested colleagues. We are looking forward to meeting you in the lovely city of Wrocław!

Best regards,

Vienna, 2nd July 2025

On behalf of the Minister of Justice:

Dr. Thomas Gottwald

